

Kau Sai Chau South

Thursday 5th January

The first golf outing of 2017 kicked off nicely with a strong field of 20 players, with gorgeous warm and sunny weather.

The first 4-ball comprised of myself, Jonny Brock, Dallas Reid and “Delicate” Nick Allen.

As usual, there was a side wager with myself and Jonny battling it out against Dallas and Nick, with Nick gaining his new nickname by delicately sinking 3 amazing birdie putts all on the back 9, giving him a whopping 40 stableford points after 18 holes. Jonny and myself dovetailed well and managed to win the front 9, and with my birdie putt on the 18th lipping out the match with a draw. Fantastic match, guys.

Second to tee off were Alastair Murray, David Lindsay, Gus Emmerson and Quentin Burrows. David was playing out of his skin and managed to accumulate 39 stableford points. Alas, Quentin was not having such a great day, and with his stock of balls dwindling by the hole, Quentin conceded after 14 holes.

Next off were the pairs of Owen and Shauna Davis, and Rebecca and Joseph Wong, who reported some “super steady stuff” with Shauna parring the very tricky par 3 16th hole, and Joseph hitting his drive onto the roof of a golf cart to end up pin high on the 8th were some of the highlights.

The penultimate 4-ball were King Tsui and guest Anthony Ng, Peter Nie and William Tsui. With only King and Peter being eligible for the stableford competition, the scores weren't as competitive as the other groupings.

Last to tee off were the social grouping of Lina and Ron Adrianse, and Angela Koo and Dominic Ng. Well done to both Lina and Angela for both winning the longest Drive competition on hole 17, as both balls were equidistant and on the fairway.

So onto the prize giving in the 19th hole:
